

The Connected Trimble Construction One™ Team:

Service Management Professionals

Service contracts are the backbone of your business—especially if you're a contractor who relies on regular maintenance and service call work to keep cash rolling in when building work is slow.

Running a Better Business Series

What Service Management wants.

Faster, smoother customer responses, so you can bill and collect cash faster. Technicians should be able to focus on service work, not paperwork.

What Service gets.

Trimble Construction One™		Point Solutions	Legacy Processes
Create and manage service agreements, scheduled maintenance, and serviceable items	✓	Tedious administration of third-party connectors	Unscalable, manual and risk-prone processes
Create mobile work orders. Enter work orders quickly, create work orders, and capture digital signatures on the go	✓
Service technicians can assign labor, equipment and material costs directly to work orders, so the office can track profitability	✓
Service technicians can capture notes and photos, and attach them to work orders	✓
Bill faster to get paid faster with fewer disputes: Get mobile work orders signed-off instantly, and routed to accounting to generate invoices	✓
